Principal's News

Thought For the Week

Success is getting up once more often than you fall down.

Farewell

Yesterday the staff said farewell to Peter Liebhardt, who has been the general assistant at school for the past seven years.

We wish him well in his retirement.

Remembrance Day

Congratulations to our leaders and the whole school for the way they conducted themselves at our Remembrance Day Service. You responded with reverence and respect - well done! Thank you to those parents and community members who attended.

Dance Group

Mrs K would like to thank those students who performed last Saturday. You performed well under very hot circumstances. It was great fun!

Stranger Danger

As the days are getting longer some children are out later in the evenings. It is probably timely to remind parents to speak to their children about their personal safety. We will be endeavouring to have the Police Liaison Officer come to speak to the children in the next few weeks.

Afternoon Exiting

We would request that parents inform the school of any change of pick up or travel arrangements either by note or by phone call. We cannot depend on a child's word when they are asking to go home with a friend or catch an alternate bus as we do not know if they have your permission. Our duty of care does not allow us to alter their usual arrangements or release children to other adults without some prior information.
